Who Are the Blessed?

What's so great about being poor? On the surface of it these Beatitudes of Jesus (Today's Gospel) seem very strange: 'How happy are you who are poor'. Surely its better to be wealthy, to be well fed, and to enjoy good times.

But Jesus is not interested in comfort or in maintaining the status quo. Luke reminds us that Jesus is something of a revolutionary. He has come to turn the social order on its head: last becomes first and least becomes greatest. His concern is always for the poor and marginalized. Jesus' vision is of a world where the unjust structures that cause poverty and hunger are swept away. But sadly, inequalities in our world today are as stark as ever in regard to wealth, education and health. The Beatitudes remind us that the task of the Christian is to tackle injustice and to act in solidarity with those who are on the margins of society.
