Not Peace at Any Price

Every time we attend Mass we remember what Jesus told his disciples, "Peace I leave you, my peace I give you" and we will then exchange a sign of peace. But in today's gospel reading, Jesus tells us that he has come not to establish peace on earth but rather division. What are we to make of this?

Peace means different things to different people and in different times. To some, peace means that everything is quiet, there are no disturbances; law and order prevail. These may be signs of real peace, but maybe not. Underneath the surface tranquility, there may be injustice, racism, sexism, ageism, economic exploitation, religious discrimination, and many other forms of oppression. This is not real peace; that's violence disguised as respectability.

The command to love our neighbor obliges us to protest against mistreatment and to struggle for justice. That can create division. It can get people thrown into jail. When Martin Luther King, Jr and others fought for racial justice, they were called "trouble makers." They were simply following the example of Jesus.

James Di Giacomo SJ

Mission Appeal

Fr Terry Smith of the Holy Ghost Fathers will be visiting the parish next weekend. He will be speaking at the Masses about the missionary work of the Holy Ghost Fathers through the world.

Baptism

We welcomed into the Christian family, Peigi Marcella O'Halloran, Minard and Dublin on Sunday. We pray God's blessing on the newly baptized and his parents.

Exam Results

Well done to all our students who got their Leaving Cert results this week. We wish them well as they contemplate what courses to take and what college to attend. Thought - "exam results do not define who you are as a person"
