Uphill struggle

Have you ever felt like giving up? Elijah certainly did. In today's first reading we meet a prophet who has had enough. He is fleeing from trouble and things seem so hopeless after a day's journey that he sits under a bush and begs God to take his life away. Life has a way of getting on top of us, such as when we are grieving a loss, when we are hurt by a friend, when illness strikes, or when we are simply exhausted. We experience the feelings described in the anonymous poem Don't Quit: 'when things go wrong as they sometimes will/when the road you're trudging seems all uphill...'

At these times of struggle it is helpful to pause and to refuel for the journey. Elijah was visited by an angel who offered him comfort and respite, giving him the strength to carry on. In today's gospel, we hear Jesus again say that he is the living bread. Some people have been complaining about his teaching. Surely this is the son of Joseph, they say, demonstrating their lack understanding of who Jesus really is. Again, he explains that he is the bread of life- more than physical food, more than an ordinary man, he is the living bread and he is God. In all our struggles, especially when we feel like giving up, Jesus offers us nourishment for the journey. This gift is there for us especially in the eucharist, offering comfort and strength. Triona Doherty - Intercom

"The eucharist is not a prize for the perfect but a powerful medicine and nourishment for the weak"

Pope Francis

Confirmation

Bishop Francis has circulated all parishes with the following advice "I believe it is important to follow official public health advice in relation to gatherings at this time. I am, therefore, asking all of our parishes to observe the current public health guidelines and to wait until the appropriate time to hold the celebration of Confirmation." A date will be set in September.

Wedding Bells

Congratulations and best wishes to Grainne O'Reilly, Castle Inn, Newtownforbes and Gerard Forde, Carrigtowhell, Cork, who were married in St Mary's Church, Newtownforbes on Monday. We wish the newly weds every blessing in the times ahead.
